§ 572.101 Agency authority.

(a) An agency may determine which positions qualify for the payment of a new appointee's travel expenses to the first post of duty. Payment of travel and transportation expenses will be in accordance with the Federal Travel Regulation (FTR) (41 CFR chapters 301–304).

(b) An agency may determine which interviewees are eligible for payment of pre-employment interview travel expenses. Payment of these travel expenses will be in accordance with the FTR.

[56 FR 28307, June 20, 1991]

§ 572.102 Agency discretion.

Payment of travel expenses for any individual candidate or appointee will be at the discretion of the employing agency. A decision by one agency that payment is appropriate for a particular position does not require a like determination by any other agency filling similar positions. A decision made in connection with one specific vacancy does not require a like decision in connection with future vacancies. In deciding to pay travel and transportation or interview expenses in filling any position, the agency should consider such factors as availability of funds as well as the desirability of conducting interviews for a particular job or offering a recruiting incentive to a particular candidate.

§ 572.103 Recordkeeping.

Each agency will maintain records of payments made under this authority and will make those records available to OPM on request.

Subpart A—Recruitment Bonuses

§ 575.101 Purpose.

This subpart provides regulations to implement 5 U.S.C. 5753, which authorizes payment of a recruitment bonus of up to 25 percent of the annual rate of basic pay to a newly appointed employee, provided there is a determination that, in the absence of such a bonus, difficulty would be encountered in filling the position.

[60 FR 33325, June 28, 1995]

§ 575.102 Delegation of authority.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, the head of an agency (or, with respect to positions not under the General Schedule, the head of an Executive agency) may pay a recruitment bonus to an employee who is newly appointed to—

(1) A General Schedule position paid under 5 U.S.C. 5332;

(2) A senior-level or scientific or professional position paid under 5 U.S.C. 5376;

(3) A Senior Executive Service position paid under 5 U.S.C. 5383;

(4) A position as a law enforcement officer, as defined in § 550.103 of this chapter.

(5) A position under the Executive Schedule established under subchapter II of chapter 53 of title 5, United States Code, or a position the rate of pay for which is fixed by law at a rate equal to a rate for the Executive Schedule; or

(6) An executive branch position filled by Presidential appointment (with or without the advice and consent of the Senate).

(b) The delegation of authority under paragraph (a) of this section shall not apply to the payment of a recruitment bonus to—

(1) The head of an agency, including an agency headed by a collegial body composed of two or more individual members; or

(2) An employee appointed to a position in the expectation of receiving an appointment as the head of an agency.

(c) The head of an Executive agency may request that OPM authorize the payment of a recruitment bonus to one or more categories of employees of his or her agency not otherwise covered by 5 U.S.C. 5753 or this subpart.

(d) When OPM finds that an agency is not paying recruitment bonuses in conformance with the agency's recruitment bonus plan and the criteria established under § 575.104 of this part or otherwise determines that the agency is not using this authority selectively and judiciously, it may—

(1) Direct the agency to revoke or suspend the authority granted to any organizational component of the agency and with respect to any category or categories of employees and require that prior approval be secured at headquarters level before paying a recruitment bonus to such employees; or

(2) Revoke or suspend the authority granted to the head of the agency by paragraph (a) of this section for all or any part of the agency and with respect to any category or categories of employees and require that prior OPM approval be secured before paying a recruitment bonus to such employees.

§ 575.103 Definitions.

In this subpart: Agency has the meaning given that term in 5 U.S.C. 5102.

Commuting area means the geographic area that normally is considered one area for employment purposes. It includes any population center (or two or more neighboring ones) and the surrounding localities where people live and reasonably can be expected to travel back and forth daily to work.

Employee means—

(a) An employee in or under an agency who is newly appointed; or

(b) An individual not yet employed who has received a written offer to be newly appointed and has signed a written service agreement in accordance with § 575.106 prior to payment of the recruitment bonus.

Head of agency means the head of an agency or an official who has been delegated the authority to act for the head of the agency in the matter concerned.

Involuntarily separated refers to a separation initiated by an agency against the employee's will and without his or her consent for reasons other than cause on charges of misconduct or delinquency. An involuntary separation includes a separation resulting from the employee's actual inability to do the work following genuine efforts to do so, but does not include a separation under part 752 of this chapter or an equivalent procedure for reasons that involve culpable wrongdoing on the part of the employee. In addition, when an employee is separated because he or she declines to accept reassignment outside the commuting area, the separation is involuntary if the employee's position description or other written agreement does not provide for such reassignment. However, an employee's separation is not involuntary if, after such a written mobility agreement is added, the employee accepts one reassignment outside the commuting area, but subsequently declines another such reassignment.

Newly appointed refers to—

(a) The first appointment, regardless of tenure, as an employee of the Federal Government; or

(b) An appointment as an employee of the Federal Government following a break in service of at least 90 days from the candidate's last period of Federal employment, other than—

(1) Employment under the Student Educational Employment Program under § 213.3202;

(2) Employment as a law clerk trainee under § 213.3102(e) of this chapter;

(3) Employment while a student during school vacations under a short-term temporary appointing authority;

(4) Employment under a provisional appointment designated under § 316.403 if the new appointment is permanent and immediately follows the provisional appointment; or

(5) Employment under a temporary appointment that is neither full-time nor the principal employment of the candidate.

Rate of basic pay means the rate of pay fixed by law or administrative action for the position to which the employee is or will be newly appointed before deductions and exclusive of additional pay of any kind, such as locality-based comparability payments under 5 U.S.C. 5304 or special pay adjustments for law enforcement officers under section 404 of the Federal Employees Pay Comparability Act of 1990 (Pub. L. 101-509).

Service agreement means a written agreement between an agency and a newly appointed employee under which the employee agrees to a specified period of employment of a minimum of 12 months with the appointing agency in return for payment of a recruitment bonus.

[56 FR 12838, Mar. 28, 1991, as amended at 57 FR 37398, Aug. 19, 1992; 60 FR 33325, June 28, 1995; 61 FR 3543, Feb. 1, 1996]

§ 575.104 Agency recruitment bonus plans; higher level review and approval; and criteria for payment.

(a) Agency recruitment bonus plans. (1) Before paying a recruitment bonus under this subpart, the head of an agency shall establish a recruitment bonus plan.

(2) A recruitment bonus plan shall include the following elements:

(i) The designation of officials with authority to review and approve payment of recruitment bonuses;

(ii) Criteria that must be met or considered in authorizing bonuses, including criteria for determining the amount of a bonus;

(iii) Procedures for paying bonuses;

(iv) Requirements for service agreements; and

(v) Documentation and record-keeping requirements sufficient to allow reconstruction of the action.

(b) Higher level review and approval.

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (b)(2) of this section, each determination to pay a recruitment bonus, including the amount of such bonus, shall be reviewed and approved by an official of the agency who is at a higher level than the official who made the initial decision, unless there is no official at a higher level in the agency.

(2) When necessary to make a timely offer of employment, a higher level official may establish criteria for offering recruitment bonuses in advance and authorize the recommending official to offer a recruitment bonus (in any amount within a pre-established range) to any candidate without further review or approval.

(c) Criteria for payment. (1) Each bonus paid under this subpart shall be based on a written determination that, in the absence of such a bonus, the agency would encounter difficulty in filling the position. Such a determination shall be made before the employee actually enters on duty in the position for which he or she was recruited. An agency may target groups of positions that have been difficult to fill in the past or that may be difficult to fill in the future and may make the required written determination to offer a recruitment bonus on a group basis.

(2) In determining whether a recruitment bonus should be paid and in determining the amount of any such payment, an agency shall consider the following factors, as applicable in the case at hand:

(i) The success of recent efforts to recruit candidates for similar positions, including indicators such as offer acceptance rates, the proportion of positions filled, and the length of time required to fill similar positions;

(ii) Recent turnover in similar positions;

(iii) Labor-market factors that may affect the ability of the agency to recruit candidates for similar positions now or in the future;

(iv) Special qualifications needed for the position; and

(v) The practicality of using the superior qualifications appointment authority provided by 5 U.S.C. 5333 and § 531.203(b) of this chapter alone or in combination with a recruitment bonus.

[56 FR 12838, Mar. 28, 1991; 56 FR 14290, Apr. 8, 1991, as amended at 60 FR 33326, June 28, 1995]

§ 575.105 Payment of recruitment bonus.

A recruitment bonus shall be calculated as a percentage of the employee's annual rate of basic pay (not to exceed 25 percent) and paid as a lump sum. It shall not be considered part of an employee's rate of basic pay for any purpose.

[60 FR 33326, June 28, 1995]

§ 575.106 Service agreement.

(a) Before a recruitment bonus may be paid, an agency shall require that the employee sign a written service agreement to complete a specified period of employment with the appointing agency (or successor agency in the event of a transfer of function).

(b) The minimum period of employment to be established under a service agreement for a recruitment bonus shall be 6 months.

[60 FR 33326, June 28, 1995]

§ 575.107 Repayment of recruitment bonus.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (d) of this section, an employee who fails to complete the period of employment established under a service agreement shall be indebted to the Federal Government and shall repay the recruitment bonus on a pro rata basis. The amount to be repaid shall be determined by providing credit for each full month of employment completed by the employee under the service agreement.

(b) Failure to complete the period of employment established under a service agreement occurs when the employee's service with the appointing agency terminates before the employee completes the period of employment specified in the service agreement.

(c) Amounts owed by an employee under paragraph (a) of this section shall be recovered from the employee under the agency's regulations for collection by offset from an indebted Government employee under 5 U.S.C. 5514 and subpart K of part 550 of this chapter.

(d) Paragraph (a) of this section does not apply when an employee fails to complete a period of employment established under a service agreement because the employee is involuntarily separated.

(e) A right of recovery of an employee's debt under 5 U.S.C. 5514 may be waived in whole or in part by the head of the agency if he or she determines that recovery would be against equity and good conscience or against the public interest.

§ 575.108 Internal monitoring.

Each agency shall monitor the use of recruitment bonuses to ensure that its recruitment bonus plan conforms to the requirements established under this subpart and that the payment of recruitment bonuses conforms to the criteria established under this subpart.

[60 FR 33326, June 28, 1995]

§ 575.109 Records and reports.

(a) Each agency shall keep a record of each determination required by § 575.104(c) of this part and make such records available for review upon request by OPM. Each agency shall promptly submit a report of each such determination as a part of its regular submission to OPM's Central Personnel Data File.

(b) So that OPM can evaluate agencies' use of this authority and provide the Congress and others with information regarding the use of recruitment bonuses, each agency shall maintain such other records and submit to OPM such other reports and data as OPM shall require.

Subpart B—Relocation Bonuses

§ 575.201 Purpose.

This subpart provides regulations to implement 5 U.S.C. 5753, which authorizes payment of a relocation bonus of up to 25 percent of the annual rate of basic pay to an employee who must relocate to accept a position in a different commuting area, provided there is a determination that, in the absence of such a bonus, difficulty would be encountered in filling the position.

[60 FR 33326, June 28, 1995]

§ 575.202 Delegation of authority.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, the head of an agency (or, with respect to positions not under the General Schedule, the head of an Executive agency) may pay a relocation bonus to an employee appointed to—

(1) A General Schedule position paid under 5 U.S.C. 5332;

(2) A senior-level or scientific or professional position paid under 5 U.S.C. 5376;

(3) A Senior Executive Service position paid under 5 U.S.C. 5383;

(4) A position as a law enforcement officer, as defined in § 550.103 of this chapter.

(5) A position under the Executive Schedule established under subchapter

II of chapter 53 of title 5, United States Code, or a position the rate of pay for which is fixed by law at a rate equal to a rate for the Executive Schedule; or

(6) An executive branch position filled by Presidential appointment (with or without the advice and consent of the Senate).

(b) The delegation of authority under paragraph (a) of this section shall not apply to the payment of a relocation bonus to—

(1) The head of an agency, including an agency headed by a collegial body composed of two or more individual members; or

(2) An employee appointed to a position in the expectation of receiving an appointment as the head of an agency.

(c) The head of an Executive agency may request that OPM authorize the payment of a relocation bonus to one or more categories of employees of his or her agency not otherwise covered by 5 U.S.C. 5753 or this subpart.

(d) When OPM finds that an agency is not paying relocation bonuses in conformance with the agency's relocation bonus plan and the criteria established under § 575.204 of this part or otherwise determines that the agency is not using this authority selectively and judiciously, it may—

(1) Direct the agency to revoke or suspend the authority granted to any organizational component of the agency and with respect to any category or categories of employees and require that prior approval be secured at headquarters level before paying a relocation bonus to such employees; or

(2) Revoke or suspend the authority granted to the head of the agency by paragraph (a) of this section for all or any part of the agency and with respect to any category or categories of employees and require that prior OPM approval be secured before paying a relocation bonus to such employees.

§ 575.203 Definitions.

In this subpart: Agency has the meaning given that term in 5 U.S.C. 5102.

Commuting area means the geographic area that normally is considered one area for employment purposes. It includes any population center (or two or more neighboring ones) and the surrounding localities where people live and reasonably can be expected to travel back and forth daily to work.

Employee means an employee in or under an agency who is appointed without a break in service to a position in a different commuting area or whose duty station is changed permanently or temporarily to a different commuting area.

Head of agency means the head of an agency or an official who has been delegated the authority to act for the head of the agency in the matter concerned.

Involuntarily separated refers to a separation initiated by an agency against the employee's will and without his or her consent for reasons other than cause on charges of misconduct or delinquency. An involuntary separation includes a separation resulting from the employee's actual inability to do the work following genuine efforts to do so, but does not include a separation under part 752 of this chapter or an equivalent procedure for reasons that involve culpable wrongdoing on the part of the employee. In addition, when an employee is separated because he or she declines to accept assignment outside the commuting area, the separation is involuntary if the employee's position description or other written agreement does not provide for such reassignment. However, an employee's separation is not involuntary if, after such a written mobility agreement is added, the employee accepts one reassignment outside the commuting area, but subsequently declines another such reassignment.

Rate of basic pay means the rate of pay fixed by law or administrative action for the position to which the employee is being relocated or, in the case of an employee who is entitled to grade or pay retention, the employee's retained rate of pay, before deductions and exclusive of additional pay of any kind, such as locality-based comparability payments under 5 U.S.C. 5304 or special pay adjustments for law enforcement officers under section 404 of the Federal Employees Pay Comparability Act of 1990 (Pub. L. 101-509).

Service agreement means a written agreement between an agency and an employee under which the employee agrees to a specified period of employment with the agency at the new duty station to which relocated in return for payment of a relocation bonus.

[56 FR 12838, Mar. 28, 1991, as amended at 57 FR 37398, Aug. 19, 1992; 60 FR 33326, June 28, 1995; 60 FR 35601, July 10, 1995; 61 FR 3543, Feb. 1, 1996]

§ 575.204 Agency relocation bonus plans; higher level review and approval; criteria for payment; and exceptions to case-by-case approval.

(a) Agency relocation bonus plans. (1) Before paying a relocation bonus under this subpart, the head of an agency shall establish a relocation bonus plan.

(2) A relocation bonus plan shall include the following elements:

(i) The designation of officials with authority to review and approve payment of relocation bonuses;

(ii) Criteria that must be met or considered in authorizing bonuses, including criteria for determining the size of a bonus;

(iii) Procedures for paying bonuses;

(iv) Requirements for service agreements; and

(v) Documentation and record-keeping requirements sufficient to allow reconstruction of the action.

(b) Higher level review and approval. Except as provided in paragraph (d) of this section, each determination to pay a relocation bonus, including the amount of such bonus, shall be reviewed and approved by an official of an agency who is at a higher level than the official who made the initial decision, unless there is no official at a higher level in the agency.

(c) Criteria for payment. (1) Each bonus paid under this subpart shall be based on a written determination that, in the absence of such a bonus, the agency would encounter difficulty in filling the position. Each such determination shall be made before the employee actually enters on duty in the position to which he or she was relocated. An agency may target groups of positions that have been difficult to fill in the past or that may be difficult to fill in the future. However, except as provided in paragraph (d) of this section, any determination to pay a bonus shall be made on a case-by-case basis for each employee.

(2) In determining whether a relocation bonus should be paid and in determining the amount of any such payment, an agency shall consider the following factors, as applicable in the case at hand:

(i) The success of recent efforts to recruit candidates for similar positions, including indicators such as offer acceptance rates, the proportion of positions filled, and the length of time required to fill similar positions;

(ii) Recent turnover in similar positions;

(iii) Labor market factors that may affect the ability of the agency to recruit candidates for similar positions now or in the future; and

(iv) Special qualifications needed for the position.

(d) Exceptions to case-by-case approval. The head of an agency may waive, for a specified period of time, the case-by-case approval requirement for any employee whose rating of record is at least Level 3 ("Fully Successful" or equivalent), when—

(1) The employee is a member of a specified group of employees subject to a mobility agreement, and the head of the agency determines that relocation bonuses are necessary to ensure the agency's ability to retain employees subject to such an agreement; or

(2) A major organizational unit of the agency is relocated to a different commuting area, and the head of the agency determines that relocation bonuses are necessary for specified groups of employees to ensure the continued operation of that unit without undue disruption of an activity or function that is deemed essential to the agency's mission and/or without undue disruption of service to the public.

[56 FR 12838, Mar. 28, 1991, as amended at 57 FR 37399, Aug. 19, 1992; 60 FR 33326, June 28, 1995]

§ 575.205 Payment of relocation bonus.

(a) A relocation bonus shall be calculated as a percentage of the employee's annual rate of basic pay and paid as a lump sum. Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, the amount of a relocation bonus may not exceed 25 percent of the employee's annual rate of basic pay. It shall not be considered part of an employee's rate of basic pay for any purpose.

(b) The amount of a relocation bonus may not exceed the greater of $15,000 or 25 percent of a law enforcement officer's annual rate of basic pay in the case of—

(1) A law enforcement officer, as defined in § 550.103 of this chapter, with respect to whom the provisions of chapter 51 of title 5, United States Code, apply;

(2) A member of the United States Secret Service Uniformed Division;

(3) A member of the United States Park Police;

(4) A special agent within the Diplomatic Security Service;

(5) A probation officer (referred to in section 3672 of title 18, United States Code; and

(6) A pretrial services officer (referred to in section 3153 of title 18, United States Code).

(c) Before a relocation bonus may be paid to an employee, the employee must establish a residence in the new commuting area.

§ 575.206 Service agreement.

Before a relocation bonus may be paid, an agency shall require that the employee sign a written service agreement to complete a specified period of employment with the appointing agency (or the successor agency in the event of a transfer of function) at the new duty station.

[60 FR 33327, June 28, 1995]

§ 575.207 Repayment of relocation bonus.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (d) of this section, an employee who fails to complete the period of employment established under a service agreement shall be indebted to the Federal Government and shall repay the relocation bonus on a pro rata basis. The amount to be repaid shall be determined by providing credit for each full month of employment completed by the employee under the service agreement.

(b) Failure to complete the period of employment established under a service agreement occurs when the employee's service with the agency at the new duty station terminates before the employee completes the period of employment specified in the service agreement.

(c) Amounts owed by an employee under paragraph (a) of this section shall be recovered from the employee under the agency's regulations for collection by offset from an indebted Government employee under 5 U.S.C. 5514 and subpart K of part 550 of this chapter.

(d) Paragraph (a) of this section does not apply when an employee fails to complete the period of employment established under a service agreement because the employee is involuntarily separated or because of a written determination by the head of the agency that it is necessary to relocate the employee to a position in a different commuting area.

(e) A right of recovery of an employee's debt under 5 U.S.C. 5514 may be waived in whole or in part by the head of the agency if he or she determines that recovery would be against equity and good conscience or against the public interest.

§ 575.208 Internal monitoring.

Each agency shall monitor the use of relocation bonuses to ensure that its relocation bonus plan conforms to the requirements established under this subpart and that the payment of relocation bonuses conforms to the criteria established under this subpart.

[60 FR 33327, June 28, 1995]

§ 575.209 Records and reports.

(a) Each agency shall keep a record of each determination required by § 575.204(c) of this part and make such records available for review upon request by OPM. Each agency shall promptly submit a report of each such determination as a part of its regular submission to OPM's Central Personnel Data File.

(b) So that OPM can evaluate agencies' use of this authority and provide the Congress and others with information regarding the use of relocation bonuses, each agency shall maintain such other records and submit to OPM such other reports and data as OPM shall require.

Subpart C—Retention Allowances

§ 575.301 Purpose.

This subpart provides regulations to implement 5 U.S.C. 5754, which authorizes payment of a retention allowance of up to 25 percent of basic pay to a current employee if the unusually high or unique qualifications of the employee or a special need of the agency for the employee's services makes it essential to retain the employee, and the agency determines that the employee would be likely to leave in the absence of a retention allowance.

§ 575.302 Delegation of authority.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, the head of an agency (or, with respect to positions not under the General Schedule, the head of an Executive agency) may pay a retention allowance to an employee who holds—

(1) A General Schedule position paid under 5 U.S.C. 5332;

(2) A senior-level or scientific or professional position paid under 5 U.S.C. 5376;

(3) A Senior Executive Service position paid under 5 U.S.C. 5383;

(4) A position as a law enforcement officer, as defined in § 550.103 of this chapter;

(5) A position under the Executive Schedule established under subchapter II of chapter 53 of title 5, United States Code, or a position the rate of pay for which is fixed by law at a rate equal to a rate for the Executive Schedule; or

(6) An executive branch position filled by Presidential appointment (with or without the advice and consent of the Senate).

(b) The delegation of authority under paragraph (a) of this section shall not apply to the payment of a retention allowance to the head of an agency, including an agency headed by a collegial body composed of two or more individual members.

(c) The head of an Executive agency may request that OPM authorize the payment of a retention allowance to one or more categories of employees of his or her agency not otherwise covered by 5 U.S.C. 5754 or this subpart.

(d) When OPM finds that an agency is not paying retention allowances in conformance with the agency's retention allowance plan and the criteria established under § 575.305 of this part or otherwise determines that the agency is not using this authority selectively and judiciously, it may—

(1) Direct the agency to revoke or suspend the authority granted to any organizational component of the agency and with respect to any category or categories of employees and require that prior approval be secured at headquarters level before paying a retention allowance to such employees; or

(2) Revoke or suspend the authority granted to the head of the agency by paragraph (a) of this section for all or any part of the agency and with respect to any category or categories of employees and require that prior OPM approval be secured before paying a retention allowance to such employees.

§ 575.303 Definitions.

In this subpart: Agency has the meaning given that term in 5 U.S.C. 5102.

Employee means an employee in or under an agency.

Head of agency means the head of an agency or an official who has been delegated the authority to act for the head of the agency in the matter concerned.

Rate of basic pay means the rate of pay fixed by law or administrative action for the position held by an employee or, in the case of an employee who is entitled to grade or pay retention, the employee's retained rate of pay, before deductions and exclusive of additional pay of any kind, such as locality-based comparability payments under 5 U.S.C. 5304 or special pay adjustments for law enforcement officers under section 404 of the Federal Employees Pay Comparability Act of 1990 (Pub. L. 101–509).

5 CFR Ch. I (1–1–99 Edition)

[56 FR 12838, Mar. 28, 1991, as amended at 57 FR 37399, Aug. 19, 1992; 60 FR 33327, June 28, 1995; 61 FR 3543, Feb. 1, 1996]

§ 575.304 Conditions for payment.

(a) An agency may not begin payment of a retention allowance during a period of employment established under any service agreement required for payment of a recruitment bonus under subpart A of this part or relocation bonus under subpart B of this part. After retention allowance payments have commenced, a relocation bonus may be paid without affecting the payment of a retention allowance.

(b) An agency may pay a retention allowance to an employee if the employee is likely to leave the Federal service for any reason.

(c) An agency may not pay a retention allowance to an employee who is likely to leave his or her position for employment in the executive, legislative, or judicial branch of the Federal Government, whether in the same or a different agency.

[56 FR 12838, Mar. 28, 1991; 56 FR 40360, Aug. 14, 1991, as amended at 60 FR 33327, June 28, 1995; 60 FR 35601, July 10, 1995]

§ 575.305 Agency retention allowance plans; higher level review and approval; and criteria for payment.

(a) Agency retention allowance plans.

(1) Before paying a retention allowance under this subpart, the head of an agency shall establish a retention allowance plan.

(2) A retention allowance plan shall include the following elements:

(i) The designation of officials with authority to review and approve payment of retention allowances;

(ii) Criteria that must be met or considered in authorizing allowances, including criteria for determining the size of an allowance;

(iii) Procedures for paying allowance; and

(iv) Documentation and record-keeping requirements sufficient to allow reconstruction of the action.

(b) Higher level review and approval. Each determination to pay a retention allowance, including the amount of such allowance, shall be reviewed and approved by an official of an agency who is at a higher level than the official who made the initial decision, unless there is no official at a higher level in the agency.

(c) Criteria for payment. (1) Each allowance paid under this subpart shall be based on a written determination that the unusually high or unique qualifications of the employee or a special need of the agency for the employee's services makes it essential to retain the employee and that, in the absence of such an allowance, the employee would be likely to leave the Federal service.

(2) The determination required by paragraph (c)(1) of this section shall be based on a written description of the extent to which the employee's departure would affect the agency's ability to carry out an activity or perform a function that is deemed essential to the agency's mission.

(3) In determining whether a retention allowance should be paid and in determining the amount of any such payment, an agency shall consider the following factors, as applicable in the case at hand:

(i) The success of recent efforts to recruit candidates and retain employees with qualifications similar to those possessed by the employee for positions similar to the position held by the employee; and

(ii) The availability in the labor market of candidates for employment who, with minimal training or disruption of service to the public, could perform the full range of duties and responsibilities assigned to the position held by the employee.

(d) Approval of retention allowances for groups or categories of employees. (1) An agency may authorize a retention allowance of up to 10 percent of an employee's rate of basic pay for a group or category of employees (excluding individuals covered by § 575.302(a) (2), (3), (5), or (6) or those in similar positions with respect to which the authority to approve retention allowances has been delegated to agency heads by OPM under § 575.302(c)) based on a written determination that the category of employees has unusually high or unique qualifications, or the agency has a special need for the employees' services that makes it essential to retain the employees in that category, and that it is reasonable to presume that there is a high risk that a significant number of employees in the targeted category are likely to leave Federal service in the absence of the allowance. The determination that there is a high risk that a significant number of employees in the targeted category are likely to leave may be based on evidence of extreme labor market conditions, high demand in the private sector for the knowledge and skills possessed by the employees, significant disparities between Federal and private sector salaries, or other similar conditions.

(2) Upon the request of the head of an agency, OPM may approve a retention allowance in excess of 10 percent, but not in excess of 25 percent, of an employee's rate of basic pay for a group or category of employees that meets the criteria specified in paragraph (d)(1) of this section. OPM may require that such requests be coordinated with other agencies having similarly situated employees in the same category. Group retention allowance requests must include—

(i) A description of the group or category and number of employees to be covered by the proposed retention allowance;

(ii) A written determination that the group or category of employees meets the criteria specified in paragraph (d)(1) of this section;

(iii) The proposed percentage retention allowance payment and a justification for that percentage;

(iv) The expected duration of retention allowance payments; and

(v) Any other information pertinent to the case at hand.

(3) All other criteria and requirements for payment under this subpart must be met before a retention allowance may be paid to any individual employee under this paragraph (d).

[56 FR 12838, Mar. 28, 1991, as amended at 60 FR 33327, June 28, 1995; 63 FR 34121, June 23, 1998]

§ 575.306 Payment of retention allowance.

(a) A retention allowance shall be calculated as a percentage of the employee's rate of basic pay (not to exceed 25 percent) and paid in the same manner and at the same time as basic pay—i.e., the allowance shall be paid at an hourly rate for each hour during which the employee receives basic pay. It shall not be considered part of an employee's rate of basic pay for any purpose.

(b) The head of an agency may not authorize a retention allowance for an employee if or to the extent that such an allowance, when added to the employee's estimated aggregate compensation, as defined in § 530.202 of this chapter, would cause the aggregate compensation actually received by the employee during the calendar year to exceed the rate payable for level I of the Executive Schedule at the end of the calendar year.

(c) Except as provided in § 575.307(a) of this part, an agency may continue payment of a retention allowance as long as the conditions giving rise to the original determination to pay the allowance still exist. However, at least annually, each determination to pay an allowance shall be reviewed by the agency to determine whether the payment is still warranted, and this determination shall be certified in writing by the approving official.

(d) A retention allowance is not pay for purposes of a lump-sum payment for annual leave under 5 U.S.C. 5551 or 5552.

[56 FR 12838, Mar. 28, 1991, as amended at 58 FR 50249, Sept. 27, 1993; 60 FR 33327, June 28, 1995]

§ 575.307 Reduction or termination of retention allowance.

(a) At the time an increase in one or more nondiscretionary payments to an employee causes the employee's estimated aggregate compensation, as defined in § 530.202 of this chapter, to exceed the aggregate limitation on pay, as described in § 530.203 of this chapter, the agency shall reduce the authorization for the amount of the retention allowance to the extent necessary to ensure that the aggregate compensation the employee actually receives does not exceed the rate payable for level I of the Executive Schedule at the end of the calendar year.

(b) The head of an agency may reduce or terminate payment of a retention allowance when it determines that—

(1) A lesser amount (or none at all) would be sufficient to retain the employee;

(2) Labor-market factors make it more likely (or reasonably likely) to recruit a candidate with qualifications similar to those possessed by the employee;

(3) The agency's need for the services of the employee has been reduced to a level that makes it unnecessary to continue payment at the level originally approved (or at all); or

(4) Budgetary considerations make it difficult to continue payment at the level originally approved (or at all).

(c) The reduction or termination of a retention allowance may not be appealed. However, the preceding sentence shall not be construed to extinguish or lessen any right or remedy under subchapter II of chapter 12 of title 5, United States Code, or any of the laws referred to in 5 U.S.C. 2302(d).

[56 FR 12838, Mar. 28, 1991, as amended at 58 FR 50250, Sept. 27, 1993]

§ 575.308 Internal monitoring.

Each agency shall monitor the use of retention allowances to ensure that its retention allowance plan conforms to the requirements established under this subpart and that the payment of retention allowances conforms to the criteria established under this subpart.

[60 FR 33327, June 28, 1995]

§ 575.309 Records and reports.

(a) Each agency shall keep a record of each determination required by § 575.305(c) of this part and make such records available for review upon request by OPM. Each agency shall promptly submit a report of each such determination as a part of its regular submission to OPM's Central Personnel Data File.

(b) So that OPM can evaluate agencies' use of this authority and provide the Congress and others with information regarding the use of retention allowances, each agency shall maintain such other records and submit to OPM such other reports and data as OPM shall require.

Subpart D—Supervisory Differentials

SOURCE: 56 FR 20338, May 3, 1991, unless otherwise noted.

§ 575.401 Purpose.

This subpart provides regulations to implement 5 U.S.C. 5755, which authorizes payment of a supervisory differential to an employee under the General Schedule who has supervisory responsibility for one or more civilian employees not under the General Schedule if one or more of the subordinate civilian employees would, in the absence of such a differential, be paid more than the supervisory employee.

§ 575.402 Delegation of authority.

(a) The head of an agency may pay a supervisory differential to a supervisor who is—

(1) In a General Schedule position paid under 5 U.S.C. 5332; and

(2) Responsible for providing direct, technical supervision over the work of one or more civilian employees whose positions are not under the General Schedule if the continuing pay (as determined under § 575.405(d) of this part) of one or more of the subordinates would, in the absence of such a differential, be more than the continuing pay (as determined under § 575.405(c) of this part) of the supervisor.

(b) A supervisory differential may not be paid on the basis of supervising a civilian employee whose rate of basic pay exceeds the maximum rate of basic pay established for grade GS-15 on the pay schedule applicable to the GS supervisor, including a schedule for any applicable locality rate of pay under 5 U.S.C. 5304, a special law enforcement adjusted rate of pay under section 404 of the Federal Employees Pay Comparability Act of 1990 (Pub. L. 101-509), or any applicable special rate of pay under 5 U.S.C. 5305.

§ 575.404 Use of authority.

(a) Each determination to pay a supervisory differential shall be made in writing under procedures established by each agency.

(b) The procedures established by each agency under paragraph (a) of this section shall provide that—

(1) Each determination to pay a supervisory differential, including the amount of such differential, shall be reviewed and approved by an official of the agency who is at higher level than the official who made the initial decision, unless there is no official at a higher level in the agency; and

(2) In determining whether to use the authority under 5 U.S.C. 5755 and this subpart and in determining the amount of such differential, the relationship in pay among supervisors under the General Schedule in the same organizational component of the agency shall be considered, as well as the relationship in pay between the supervisor and his or her subordinate(s).

(3) Each determination to pay a supervisory differential shall be documented.

§ 575.405 Calculation and payment of supervisory differential.

(a) A supervisory differential shall be calculated as a percentage of the supervisor's rate of basic pay or as a dollar amount and shall be paid in the same manner and at the same time as the supervisor's basic pay—i.e., the differential shall be paid at an hourly rate for each hour during which the supervisor receives basic pay.

(b) The amount of a supervisory differential shall not cause the supervisor's continuing pay, as determined under paragraph (c) of this section, to exceed the continuing pay of the highest paid subordinate not under the General Schedule, as determined under paragraph (d) of this section, by more than 3 percent.

(c) For purposes of comparing the continuing pay of a supervisor whose position is under the General Schedule with the continuing pay of a subordinate whose position is not under the General Schedule, the following payments shall be included in determining the amount of continuing pay received by the supervisor:

(1) Basic pay, including a retained rate of pay under 5 U.S.C. 5363 and part 536 of this chapter or other similar authority;

(1) Basic pay, excluding a night or environmental differential under 5 U.S.C. 5343(f) or part 532 of this chapter, respectively, or other similar authority and a retained rate of pay under 5 U.S.C. 5363 and part 536 of this chapter or other similar authority;

(2) A locality-based comparability payment under 5 U.S.C. 5304, a special law enforcement adjusted rate of pay under section 404 of the Federal Employees Pay Comparability Act of 1990 (Pub. L. 101–509), or another locality-based payment under similar authority, excluding a continued rate adjustment under subpart G of part 531 of this chapter;

§ 575.406 Adjustment or termination of supervisory differential.

(a) An agency may establish procedures that allow for adjusting or terminating a supervisory differential at any time the agency determines it is appropriate to do so.

(b) A supervisory differential shall be terminated when the continuing pay of the supervisor (not including the supervisory differential) exceeds the continuing pay of the highest paid subordinate whose position is not under the General Schedule.

(c) A supervisory differential shall be reduced or terminated, as appropriate, when the continuing pay of the supervisor (including the supervisory differential) exceeds the continuing pay of the highest paid subordinate whose position is not under the General Schedule by more than 3 percent.

(d) The effective date of a reduction or termination of a supervisory differential under paragraph (b) or (c) of this section shall be not later than 30 calendar days after the date on which the event that necessitates the reduction or termination occurs.
